.XXX? No thanks

my objection to the .XXX sTLD...

Below are the comments I posted to ICANN for the current public comment period regarding the proposal by ICM Registry to establish .XXX as a 'sponsored' Top Level Domain (sTLD). It is an issue of great importance to the adult entertainment industry, and the online sector of the industry, in particular. To Whom It May Concern: I renew

Tanya Tate, My Favorite Milfed Out Milfy Milf @tanyatate

I've recently had a pleasant experience on twitter and it wasn't from finding out that I had an abundance of erectile disfunction peddlers as loyal followers. No, it was running into and speaking with Tanya Tate who recently shot some steamy Milf video for Pink Visual. So stop reading this somewhat amusing intro text and ogle her hot milfy body. Also, go...

Porn Company Likes Content on Torrents?

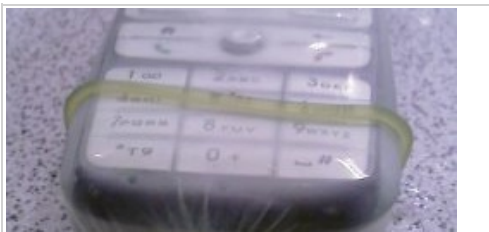

I find anybody who understands that illegal downloads exist because they're easier and quicker than going legit routes to be refreshing and realistic. Such is the point of view from Private Media Group CEO Berth Milton, "I think it's a lost battle," Milton said, adding: "I look at my own kids, because that's the best way to know where the market is going. It...

Top 3 Strange But Common Masturbation Techniques

The fact you clicked on a story concerning the hierarchy of weird masturbation techniques proves you are well versed in the subject, but before you run off and teach a 'no guilt self loving' course at your local learning annex take a moment and brush up on these basics. #3 Insertion Masturbation "Over the years men have found a large variety of things and...

FaceTime Making Calls Afterdark

Yes, very soon you'll be able to fulfill your Mr. Spacely video screen fetish by making direct FaceTime calls to the scantily clad women of the future. In a new Associated Press article our very own blog contributor Q dishes out how. "A phone is such an intimate thing, you usually don't lend it out or have someone else use it," said Quentin Boyer, a...
